

Emily Knox Law Enforcement Dedication Scholarship Application

Emily passed on January 1, 2019. At the time she was enrolled in the Criminal Justice Program at Saginaw Valley where she was planning on becoming a Police Officer.

To help keep her spirit and dream alive, we decided to help others that also want a career in the Criminal Justice Field. So, we started this scholarship.

There are a lot of wonderful people that help us raise money for the scholarship. One big event is hosted by the Port Huron Eagle Riders. Which is a Motorcycle Benefit Run and occurs yearly in July.

Without the support of our Family, Friends, and Community, this Scholarship would not be possible.

Please fill out this application completely to be eligible for selection of a $1,000 Scholarship.

You MUST be currently or planning on pursuing a career in the Criminal Justice System. Checks will be made out to the School of your choice or The Academy if you are selected for a scholarship.
